

It Books

Carton Qty: 28

Selling Territory: W
30,000

On Sale: 11/10/2009

Memoir

pb 9780060009472

$14.99 ($18.99 CAN)

320 pages; 6 x 9

16-page color insert + b&w
photos throughout; Index

No Lifeguard on Duty

The Accidental Life of the World's First Supermodel

Janice Dickinson

An Icon!t Classic

New York Times Bestseller

Now in trade paperback for the first time, the ultimate tale of sex, drugs, rock & roll, and redemption from modeling icon Janice Dickinson

"Engaging. . . . Vivid. . . . Illuminating. Janice survives it all—cushioned..."

Before her star turns on The Janice Dickinson Modeling Agency and America's Next Top Model, the stunning, exotic brunette Janice Dickinson broke the long chain of All-American blondes to become the world's first supermodel, gracing the covers of Vogue, Cosmopolitan, and many other major magazines. In this unadulterated memoir, she tells her incredible story, filled with dizzying highs and lows—from the cruelty and abuse of her childhood to the money, power, and fame of her stardom; from her glory days with Gia Carangi and Christie Brinkley to nights with Warren Beatty, Jack Nicholson, and Sylvester Stallone; from a dizzying drug and alcohol habit to three failed marriages; from cavorting around the globe to struggling to make it in Los Angeles as a working mom.

Following her precarious ascent to stardom, her notorious fall from grace, and her triumphant journey to recovery, this captivating and cautionary tale reveals the smart, passionate woman beneath the glossy photos—and strips bare the business that made her a legend.

Marketing Campaign

- Online Campaign

Author Bio

Janice Dickinson was one of the highest-paid and most in-demand cover models of the 1970s and 1980s. She appeared on the cover of nearly every major fashion magazine in the U.S. and internationally. Today she works as a model and photographer in Los Angeles and is the mother of a son, Nathan, and a daughter, Savannah.